OCTOBER: The Digital Village—The Good, The Bad & The Ugly

Presented by: Operation: SPIRIT brings Doris Settles (Lexington, KY) - Doris speaks and writes extensively for national, regional and local organizations on technology. She was the keynote speaker at the 2008 and 2009 National Youth at Risk Conference and also served on the National Association of Attorney's General 2007 Task Force on Internet Safety.

Description: Finally! ...A presentation that is not designed to scare you but rather inform and equip you to help your teen become a responsible digital citizen. In today's "always on," "always connected," "anytime," "everywhere" world, our kids are digital natives...unfortunately, parents are digital immigrants. This two hour session will help close the gap by providing parents with some practical tips on raising responsible digital citizens.

Format: $20 fee includes a two hour interactive presentation, followed by Q&A and ending with applied learning using "real life" scenarios that you won't forget! You will also receive Doris Settles' newly released book Virtual Parenting.

This class is a prerequisite for "The Forever Rule" class that Doris will present on October 26, 2009. Coffee and light refreshments provided.

Date & Time: Monday, October 12, 2009. Choose from 12:30-2:30pm or 6:00-8:00pm.

Location: Ormsby 3 Building, 10200 Forest Green Blvd, Louisville 40223. Conveniently located near UPS off North Hurstborne Lane, behind the McDonald's and Applebee's.
